Management Comments on Second Quarter Performance

"Our second quarter results reflect stable NAV and solid credit performance across the portfolio," said Steven B. Klinsky, NMFC Chairman and New Mountain Capital CEO. "We believe NMFC remains undervalued, with a dividend yield of 15% based on Friday's closing share price. Our insider ownership now represents 18% of shares outstanding, demonstrating our confidence in the Company's long-term value."

John R. Kline, NMFC CEO, added: "During the second quarter, NMFC improved its portfolio composition through a reduction in non-accruals. Looking ahead, we remain focused on our strategic priorities which include selling certain equity positions, reducing PIK income and increasing portfolio diversification."

Portfolio and Investment Activity⁴

As of June 30, 2026, the Company’s NAV² was $1,028.2 million and its portfolio had a fair value of $2,295.5 million of investments in 113 portfolio companies, with a weighted average YTM at Cost⁶ of approximately 11.1%. For the three months ended June 30, 2026, the Company originated $73.3 million of investments⁷, offset by $61.0 million of repayments⁷ and $43.4 million of sales.

Portfolio and Asset Quality

NMFC’s mandate is to primarily target businesses in the middle market that, consistent with New Mountain’s private equity platform, are high quality, defensive growth companies in industries that are well-researched by New Mountain. The Company’s focus is on defensive growth businesses that generally exhibit the following characteristics: (i) acyclical³, (ii) sustainable secular growth drivers, (iii) niche market dominance and high barriers to competitive entry, (iv) recurring revenue and strong free cash flow, (v) flexible cost structures and (vi) seasoned management teams.

The Company monitors the performance and financial trends of its portfolio companies on at least a quarterly basis. The Company attempts to identify any developments within the portfolio company, the industry, or the macroeconomic environment that may alter any material element of the Company’s original investment strategy. As described more fully in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the portfolio monitoring procedures are designed to provide a simple, yet comprehensive analysis of the Company’s portfolio companies based on their operating performance and underlying business characteristics, which in turn forms the basis of its Risk Rating. The Risk Rating is expressed in categories of Green, Yellow, Orange and Red with Green reflecting an investment that is in-line with or above expectations and Red reflecting an investment performing materially below expectations.

The following table shows the Risk Rating of the Company’s portfolio companies as of June 30, 2026:

(in millions)		As of June 30, 2026
Risk Rating	Cost		Percent	Fair Value		Percent	Weighted Average Mark
